

GENERAL INFORMATION

Epitheorese Klinikes Farmakologias kai Farmakokinetikes is an open-access, peer-reviewed journal published quadrimesterly by PHARMAKON-Press. It was established in Athens (Greece) by Prof. Stavros T. Plessas MD and Dr Charalampos T. Plessas, and it has provided a significant service to the international pharmacological community since 1983. The journal's aim is to promote optimum drug therapy by publishing articles that address important aspects and challenges faced in the wider fields of Clinical and Applied Pharmacology, Medicine, and Therapeutics.

The journal considers and publishes manuscripts for the following 10 article types: case report, commentary, correspondence, editorial, evidence synthesis, guidelines, hypothesis, meeting report, notes, obituary, opinion, protocol, research report, review, and tutorial. The journal's guidelines comprising manuscript specifications, templates, and other details regarding the manuscript preparation and submission, the editorial workflow, and the applicable article processing charges can be found online (<https://ekff-ge.com/guidelines/en/>).

The publisher (PHARMAKON-Press) follows the guidelines of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) and the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE) Recommendations for the Conduct, Reporting, Editing and Publication of Scholarly Work in Medical Journals. Upon submitting a manuscript to the Epitheorese Klinikes Farmakologias kai Farmakokinetikes, all authors must be in agreement regarding its content and must ensure that the manuscript conforms to all applicable editorial policies outlined in the respective webpage of the journal (<https://ekff-ge.com/policies/en/>).
